

PEARCEDALE BAXTER
JUNIOR FOOTBALL CLUB
ROUND 2 RECORD

President's Report

Another great round of football. On and off the field what a great start to the season we are having.

The last two rounds have just been amazing. It's wonderful seeing all of the kids and families around the new rooms. It has been a long time coming. The club is looking forward to organising many social events throughout the year. We will keep you updated on these.

Congratulations to our Round 1 and 2 volunteers of the week, Sara Bremner and Nicole Bidey. Although the season is only early the amount of time and work both Sara and Nicole have put in is immense.

What a great start to the season it has been for our girls teams. All teams undefeated. Also our top boys U16/17 are also undefeated. All other teams have also had a solid start to the season.

Thanks to Leanne and Mel, it is a long time coming, but our first Sunday in the canteen was a roaring success. For those who haven't noticed we now have hot jam donuts, extra jam too.

Looking forward to Round 3.

Go Dales!

Nick Caldwell
President PBJFC

COACH'S REPORT:	Our first away game saw our young and excited team travel to Mordialloc for Anzac Round. For our young team, the moment we entered the ground they displayed true team spirit by supporting and encouraging each other. This was fantastic to see for the parents and coaching staff. From the first bounce all players were involved and displayed skills and sportsmanship that showed the team can rise to the challenge and showcase qualities of football and teamwork that sets a high standard for the weeks ahead. Throughout the game both teams had their fair share of the football and goals making an exciting game. Every player displayed support for each other and with the continued rotation of positions, everyone was included and showed true camaraderie to showcase what playing football as a team is all about. The players continued to conduct themselves with the team values of teamwork and leadership as they continue to grow and improve as the season continues. Congratulations to the team's Anzac Day medalists, Parker and Cooper who displayed exceptional skill and teamwork that was well deserved. As we focus this week on another home game against Edi-Asp the continued growth on individual and team skills will continue to see exciting times ahead. Go Dales!

COACH'S REPORT:	Sunday had us traveling to Langwarrin for Anzac round. It is always a good battle against any of their teams, and this was no different. After a solid start and for the first 2 quarters, we had a bit of a lapse in the 3rd and Langy clawed their way back to within a couple of points. But the boys responded so well to what I asked of them at the break and clicked back into gear in the final qtr. It was such a good team effort all round with every player contributing in some way. Also a big congratulations to our medal winners Brooklyn, and Keegan, great effort boys. Keep working hard boys.

Unfortunately we have come up against probably 2 of the better sides in our division, but we certainly have held our own each week. The boys really played with the Anzac spirit this week showing courage, mateship and endurance. The boys are listening to the messages given to them and improving each week. We keep this up and the wins will come but more importantly the improvement will come. Going to be a exciting season. COACH'S REPORT:	Today we travelled down to Cranbourne FC for the Anzac Round. The boys started a little slowly into the wind but were getting plenty of scoring opportunities but not managing to get the goals. Throughout the second and third quarter we held our own with Cranbourne and knew if we could get another into the wind in the 3rd we were in with a massive chance of our first win. Unfortunately again we seemed to run out of legs and with 1 short on the ground our structure broke down and they kicked away for a nice little win. I know we haven't had a win yet but the boys have really stepped up to Div 2 and I couldn't be prouder. Fantastic efforts today from Hunter who was everywhere and easily saved 2 or 3 goals himself. Darcy worked extremely hard and was again rewarded with a goal. Big congratulations to our two ANZAC medalist Brandon and Benj for their outstanding games. Keep working hard men and the rewards will come. G

COACH'S REPORT:	Anzac game was another great win for the boys. All players really came to play. Great to see a couple of boys make their return to the side. Excellent ball movement again with every player having plenty of touches. Congratulations to Ollie for winning the Anzac Medal, and also congratulations to Jake Dickson on playing your 100th game for the mighty Dales!
